... PETITIONER

AND

...RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a writ of certiorary and call for the records pertaining to the order passed by the 2nd respondent herein in his proceedings No.Rc.M.313/2005, dated 25-03-2005 and quash the same as highly illegal, arbitrary and violative of Article 14 and 19(1)(g)and 21 of the Constitution of India and consequently direct the respondents to continue the petitioners as a fair price shop dealer and pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.B.PURSHOTHAM REDDY

Counsel for the Respondents: GP FOR CIVIL SUPPLIES

The Court at the stage of admission made the following :

O R D E R:

The petitioner claims that she was appointed as Fair Price Shop Dealer for 9th Ward of Yemmiganur town. She contends that the 2nd respondent through his proceedings dated 25.03.2005, suspended her authorization on the ground that the said Fair Price Shop was being run by one Mr.Somesh, and also on the ground that she did not exhibit the price list board. Aggrieved by the said proceedings, she preferred an appeal before the 1st respondent. Contending that no orders have been passed so far either in the appeal or in the application for stay, the petitioner filed this writ petition.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Civil Supplies.

It is the contention of the petitioner that she being a lady, she has taken the assistance of her brother, Mr.Somesh, in running the shop. In that view of the matter and also in view of the fact that the appeal filed by the petitioner against the order of suspension is pending before the 1st respondent, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I deem it appropriate to direct the 1st respondent, Joint Collector, to dispose of the appeal within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. However, in the facts and circumstances of the case, the respondents are directed to allow the petitioner to run the business till the disposal of the appeal by the 1st respondent.

With the above directions, the writ petition is disposed of at the stage of admission. No order as to costs.
